Discussion Questions

DISCOVER

Review last week's action step. How have fasting and the Saturated devotionals been going for your group?

LEADERS - Please explain this to your group: Every week we're asking you to start the discussion with these two questions. It's a great way to get the conversation started. Encourage your group members to think about these questions each week while they're listening to the sermon. It will help them stay engaged and prepare for group.

Have someone read Psalm 139.

- What stood out to you from the sermon and how can you apply that this week?
- What did God reveal to you in Psalm 139 this week, maybe for the first time?

DEEPEN

- What do we learn about the character and attributes of God in Psalm 139, and how do those attributes both comfort and convict us? (Pastor Josh Turner shared that God reveals himself in Psalm 139 vs. 1-6 as omniscient [all-knowing], vs. 7-12 as omnipresent [ever-present] and vs. 13-18 as omnipotent [all-powerful]. Apart from the salvation offered to us through Jesus, these aspects of God's character are condemning because of our sin. The good news is that because of the Gospel, we can be saved, comforted and liberated by who God is.)
- How does shame & guilt impact you? (Regardless of whether it is sin we have committed or sin that has been committed against us, our shame can lead us to run from the very being who can do something about it. Just as light drowns out darkness, those lies can be overcome by a greater revelation of the person of God. God has more good thoughts about each one of us than grains of sand on the earth and we can return to him in our sin because he is never surprised or disgusted by us. He will never withdraw from us.)
  - What lies cause us to run from God instead of to Him?
  - How can you run to Jesus when you feel that way?
  - What lie have you believed about yourself for so long that it's clouded out the voice of God in your life?
- Based on Psalm 139:13-18, what is the significance of how God created people compared to how He created everything else? The Sovereign God of the universe spoke everything into existence with words, but Genesis tells us that God created mankind with his hands and breath - an intimate and personal reflection of the value He gives us. God created you and called you on purpose, for a purpose.
  - How does that impact what you think about the purpose of your life?
  - How does that impact the way you think about treating others who are also handmade by God in His image?
