Psalms - Week 18: Taste and See

Share Wins, Praises and Prayers: Where did you see God move this week?

The Point: (Psalm 34:8) "Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!" Jesus is not a philosophy to be followed, an idea to be understood or a religion to be practiced. He is the one true God meant to be experienced. He is more than enough to conquer our fears, reign over our circumstances and hear our cries.

SERMON TEXT: Psalm 34, 1 Samuel 21, 2 Corinthians 3:18, Romans 3:23-25

DISCOVER

LEADERS: Every week we're asking you to start the discussion with these two questions. It's a great way to get the conversation started. Encourage your group members to think about these questions each week while they are listening to the sermon. It will help them stay engaged and prepare for group.

- What stood out to you from the sermon? How can you apply that this week?
- What did God reveal to you in Psalm 34 this week, maybe for the first time?

Have someone read Psalm 34.

- Where in this psalm do you see Jesus? (V.7 – “The Angel of the Lord” who “encamps around those who fear Him” is Jesus. In verse 20, where it is written that, “He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken,” we see a prophecy about the Messiah that Jesus fulfills in his death on the cross and resurrection.)

DEEPEN: To get context on David writing this psalm, take turns reading, 1 Samuel 21.

- Psalm 34:8 says, “Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!” How do you know when you have tasted and seen that the LORD is good, even in difficult times? (Experiencing God always prompts a response in His people – we leave changed even if our circumstances do not change, for His glory and our joy. How do you know him as deliverer until you need to be delivered, as healer until you need to be healed, as miracle worker until you need a miracle, and as your refuge until you are attacked? You can't deny him once you've tasted and seen.)
- How did fear affect David? How did David's actions change when he was being led by his faith? (Whatever you run to when you're in need is your functional savior. In 1 Samuel 21, David's fear led him to lying, stealing and running until he found himself in a cave. The only thing greater than David's fear and pain was his conviction that God is worthy of his praise. His faith led him out of the fear of his circumstances. Like light and darkness, fear and faith cannot occupy the same space, and we, like David, are always being led by one or the other.)
- In Psalm 34:1 David writes, “I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.” How was David able to write that when his circumstances were not good? (David pre-decided that God is worthy of worship and magnifying no matter what. What is God worth to you? Is he worthy of your song, your time, your affection, your witness, your money?)
- In what area(s) of your life do you need to pre-decide to worship God regardless of the circumstances or outcomes, and how will you take a step toward that this week? (A pre-decision means that you plan your response to a situation before it happens. David pre-decided that he was going to bless and praise God no matter what. His confidence wasn't in his circumstances, but in God. Practical ways to take action on your pre-decision to praise God may include memorizing and meditating on key scriptures, recalling God's past faithfulness and practicing a habit of worship.)
